AT the Court at St. James's, the 25th Day of June, 1761,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

This Day the Right Honourable Henry Arthur Earl of Powis, Comptroller of His Majesty's Household, was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

His Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable John Earl Delawarr, Lieutenant General of His Majesty's Forces, to be Governor of the Island of Guernsey, the usual Oaths, appointed to be taken by the Governor of that Island, were this Day administered to his Lordship.

His Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to order, That the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Thursday the Second of July next, should be further prorogued to Thursday the Third Day of September following. And that the Convocations of Canterbury and York, which stand prorogued to Friday the Third of July next, should be further prorogued to Friday the Fourth Day of September following.

AT the Council Chamber Whitehall, the 27th Day of June, 1761,

P R E S E N T,

The Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council.

This Day the two following Lord Lieutenants took the Oaths appointed to be taken, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, viz.

Gloucester, City of Bristol and County of the same, and City of Gloucester, and County of the same,	} John Lord Chedworth.
Norfolk, and City of Nor- wich, and County of the same,
	} George Earl of Orford.

By the KING,

A P R O C L A M A T I O N,

For the Electing a Peer of Scotland to sit in Parliament, in the room of William Earl of Home, deceased.

G E O R G E R.

WHEREAS by the Advice of Our Privy-Council, We did summon a Parliament of Great Britain to meet and be held at Westminster the 19th Day of May last past: And whereas We prorogued the said Parliament to the 2d Day of July next: And whereas by the Advice of Our Privy-Council We have thought fit to Order the said Parliament to be further prorogued to the Third Day of September next ensuing: And whereas William Earl of Home was nominated to be one of the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, and as such was returned to sit in the House of Peers in the said Parliament: Which said William Earl of Home was, at the Time of and before the said Nomination, deceased, at Gibraltar, whereof the Lords Electors had no Notice at the Time of the said Nomination: In order therefore to the Electing a Peer of Scotland to supply the Defect of the said void Nomination, and to fill up the Number of Sixteen, according to the Treaty of Union, and the Statutes in that Case made and provided, We do, by the Advice of Our Privy-

[Price Six-pence .]

Council, issue forth this Our Royal Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holy Rood House in Edinburgh, on Wednesday the Twelfth Day of August next ensuing, between the Hours of Twelve and Two in the Afternoon, to nominate and choose another Peer of Scotland to sit and vote in the House of Peers of the said Parliament of Great Britain, in the room of the said William Earl of Home, deceased, by open Election and Plurality of Voices of the Peers that shall be then present, and the Proxies for such as shall be absent, such Proxies being Peers, and producing a Mandate in Writing, duly signed before Witnesses, and both Constituent and Proxy being qualified according to Law. And the Lord Clerk Register, or such two of the Principal Clerks of the Session, as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his Name, are hereby respectively required to attend such Meeting, and to administer the Oaths required by Law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their Votes, and immediately after such Election made, and duly examined, to certify the Name of the Peer so elected, and sign and attest the same in the Presence of the said Peers, and return such Certificate into Our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And We strictly Charge and Command, That this Our Royal Proclamation may be published at Our Market Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the County Towns in Scotland, twenty-five Days at least before the Time hereby appointed for the Meeting of the said Peers to proceed to such Election. Given at Our Court at St. James's the Twenty-fifth Day of June, 1761, in the First Year of Our Reign.

G O D Save the KING.

By the Lords Justices General and General Governors of Ireland,

A P R O C L A M A T I O N.

George Armagh. Jn. Ponsonby.

WHEREAS His Majesty hath signified unto us His Royal Pleasure, That the Parliament of this Kingdom, which now stands prorogued to the Twenty-third Day of this Instant June, be further prorogued to Tuesday the Twenty-fifth Day of August next next; We do therefore Publish and Declare, That the said Parliament be, and accordingly the said Parliament is hereby further prorogued to Tuesday the Twenty-fifth Day of August next; whereof the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this present Parliament, are to take Notice accordingly.

Given at His Majesty's Castle of Dublin, the 16th of June, 1761.

By their Excellencies Command,

Tho. Waite.

G O D Save the KING.

Wesl, June 17. The Prince of Soubize's Army began to move forwards the 12th, in three Divisions: That under M. de Chevert incamped at Steyl the 14th, and at Boeckum the 15th, where they were last Night.

The Prince of Soubize's Division was the 14th at Essen: The 16th he joined the Division under M. de Chevert at Boeckum.

The Division under M. de Voyer was incamped Yesterday at Grimberg on the Emser. Confians's Corps

Corps was at Gattrop : And all the Volunteers of the Army were at Dortmund ; whither the whole Army intended soon to march, and incamp in a Line.

Frankfort, June 18. Marshal Broglie set out from hence this Morning, and was saluted at his Departure by the Cannon of the Town. The Artillery, the Grenadiers of France, as well as great Part of the Regiments, that were in the adjacent Parts, marched two Days before.

Hamburgh, June 19. We have Advice, that General Lantinghausen having resigned the Command of the Swedish Army, set out the 8th Instant on his Return to Stockholm ; and that General Ehrenswärd is to succeed him. In the mean While General Lubbecker is charged with the Command of the Swedish Troops, who continue to remain very quiet in their Quarters of Cantonment.

Hague, June 19. The Head Quarters of Marshal de Soubize's Army were, the 13th, at Holt. The 14th they marched to Essen, where M. Chevert led the Column which had remained with the Artillery at Dusseldorff. M. Voyer marched that Day to Recklinghausen. The 17th the whole Army was to be at Dortmund.

On the 17th M. Scheither, with a small Body of Light Troops, crossed the Rhine, and set Fire to the French Magazines at Xanten, and other Places ; plundered a great Quantity of Baggage, and spread great Consternation among the French Troops in those Parts.

Letters from Warsaw of the 6th say, that the Van Guard of the Russians was not then arrived at Posen.

Hague, June 23. By our last Accounts from Westphalia, Prince Soubize was encamped with his whole Army in the Neighbourhood of Dortmund ; and Marshal Broglie was expected to form his Camp near Cassel. Prince Ferdinand marched the 21st from Paderborn to Geseke. The Hereditary Prince was encamped on the Heights of Havel upon the Right of the Lippe ; as was Lieutenant General Howard, with his Corps near Ham, upon the Left of that River ; and the whole Army was disposed in such a Manner, as that it might be drawn together to the Right or Left as there should be Occasion.

Nothing had passed in Silesia when the last Letters came away, and only some Skirmishes in Saxony. The Russians, who had advanced to Belgard, after a smart Cannonading, retired upon the Approach of General Werner's Corps.

Dr. ANDERSON's, or The Famous SCOTS PILLS;

ARE faithfully prepared only by JAMES INGLISH, Son of DAVID INGLISH, deceased, at the Unicorn, over-against the New Church in the Strand, London; and to prevent Counterfeits from Scotland, as well as in and about London, you are desired to take Notice, That the true Pills have their Boxes sealed on the Top (in Black Wax) with a Lyon Rampant, and Three Mallets Argent, Dr. Anderson's Head betwixt I. I. with his Name round it, and Isabella Inghish underneath the Shield in a Scroll. They are of excellent Use in all Cases where Purging is necessary, and may be taken with Epſom, Tunbridge, or other Medicinal Waters.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many Thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure.

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurifies, Quincies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; it is extremely effectual in the Small-Pox, Measles, and St. Anthony's Fire; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church Yard, London; and by J. Hoey, jun. in Skinner Row, Dublin; at 2s. 6d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Places above-mentioned, Price 6d.

Canterbury Races.
